Having acknowledged the Article of Charge in Annexure-I, II& III on 25.07.2006, he has submitted his written statement of defence vide reference 2nd cited.

Sri M.Chakradhar Rao, Asst Commandant of this unit was appointed as enquiry officer to conduct regular oral enquiry against the charged officer into the allegations leveled against him vide reference 3rd cited.

The charged officer Sri R.Brahmaiah, PC-133, "B" Coy of this unit during the oral enquiry has not utilized the opportunities given to him during the oral enquiry and did not attend the OE, for which the oral enquiry has been conducted as Ex-parte. During the regular enquiry, in all (3) witnesses were examined and (11) documents were marked as prosecution exhibits and submitted his findings through minutes holding the allegations mentioned in Article as proved vide reference 4th cited. Agreeing with the findings of the enquiry officer, a copy of minute was supplied to the charged officer vide reference 5th Cited, which was acknowledged on 01.11.2007 and submitted his further written statement of defence vide reference 6th cited.

In his final written statement of defence, he stated that he has proceeded on Casual leave for seven (7) days w.e.f. 18.11.2004AN to 25.11.2004AN due to his wife's ill health. After availing of Casual leave he has extended leave for three (03) months w.e.f. 25.11.2004AN to 25.02.2005AN as advised by the doctor for his medical treatment. After completion, of extended leave, he has tried to report for duty, but due to sever back pain and financial bad position he failed to do so. He failed to inform the unit officer and he unable to inform his wife and children also. At last he requested to help him. Further the charged officer Sri R.Brahmaiah, PC-133, "B" Coy of this unit has submitted an application vide reference 7th cited requesting that he is absenting from duties from last two (2) years due to his ill health and family problems and his health is not recovered till date. Hence he is requesting to arrange pension as he is having 14years service and he will not go on appeal in this regard.

I have gone through the entire records of the O.E. along with other connected records of the case carefully.

The charged officer Sri R.Brahmaiah, PC-133, "B" Coy of this unit has proceeded on Casual leave for seven (07) days w.e.f. 18.11.2004AN to 25.11.2004AN. After availing of Casual leave he had approached directly to Civil Surgeon, Government Head Quarter Hospital, Nalgonda and obtained medical leave in two spells for a period of three (3) months and availed medical leave w.e.f. 25.11.2004AN to 24.01.2005AN for (60) days and from 25.01.2004FN to 25.02.2005AN for (32) days. After completion of extended medical leave he has not reported for duty and over stayed from Medical leave unauthorisedly without any leave or permission from his superiors. He completed the offence desertion period of (21) days as on 18.03.2005AN as contemplated in order No.184 of A.P.Police manual Part-I (Volume No.1) and was declared as deserter from the force w.e.f. 26.02.2005FN. He did not appear for the Oral enquiry also and not reported for duty till date. Every employee has to intimate his whereabouts to his superiors, which he failed to do so. If he was really fell sick and had any such problems, none would have been objected to obtain and proceed on leave. He has not submitted any defence documents like medical certificate, prescriptions etc for the absent period. It clearly shows that, he exhibited gross reprehensible conduct in having absented from duties on his own accord for a long period and not informed his whereabouts to his superiors till date though he was declared as deserter from the force. In the present prevailing situation, force must be available to face any challenge from Anti Social elements. Thus he violated rules and regulation. Further he was a habitual absentee. The Government also issued orders in GO.Ms.No.260, General Administration (Ser.C) department, dated 04.09.2003 instructing that, in all cases of unauthorized absence to duty for a continuous period exceeding 'one year' the penalty of Removal from Service shall be imposed on the Government employee, after duly following the procedure laid down in the Andhra Pradesh Civil Services (CC&A) Rules, 1991.

Every opportunity has been given to him to defend him self. Such person has no place in the department. Hence I order the charged officer Sri R.Brahmaiah, PC-133, "B" Coy of this unit for "REMOVAL FROM SERVICE" with immediate effect from the date of receipt of this order.

1) The availed Casual leave period of (07) days w.e.f 18.11.2004AN to 25.11.2004AN and the extended Medical leave period of (92) days w.e.f. 25.11.2004AN to 25.02.2005AN is treated as Eligible Leave,

2) The OSL/ desertion period w.e.f. 26.02.2005 FN to the date of receipt of this order is treated as "LEAVE WITHOUT PAY".

Certified that the procedure laid down in the A.P.C.S. (CC&A) rules, 1991 have been following strictly in conducting and disposal of the O.E.

DEPARTMENTAL INQUIRY

Proceedings Order no. CCC-HYD/AW/E 1/12969

Court, Hyderabad.

Between:

The Disciplinary Authority Chief Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad.

..Petitioner/Department .

And

Sri Y.Rajkumar

..Respondent/Delinquent.

The proceedings coming up for final Hearing on 6-2-08 in the presence of Smt G.Lakshmi Rajyam, Presenting Officer and, respondent/delinquent called absent and upon perusing the Material on record, this court passed the following:

ORDER

In pursuance of orders of learned Chief. Judge, City
Civil Court, Hyderabad vide Order No. Hyd/AW/EA/12969/2007, dt. -27-11-07, the undersigned is appointed as Inquiring Authority to inquire into the charges framed against Sri Y.Rajukumar, Attender, Court of IX Junior Civil Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad.

Similarly under Order No. CCC-Hyd/AW/EA/
1298/2007, dated, 27-11-07, Smt G.Lakshmi Rajyam, Superintendent, Family Court, Hyderabad is appointed as the Presenting Officer.

As seen from the material available on record, Sri
.Y Rajkumar was working as Attender in the court of IX Junior Civil Judge,; City Civil Court, Hyderabad and as he unauthorisedly remained absent to duty, the then IX Junior .Civil Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad sent a letter to the learned Chief Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad stating that the said individual has unauthorisedly absented himself from 29-5-03 to till 10-9-04. Basing on the said letter, the learned Chief Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad issued a memo dated 29-9-04 to Sri Y.Rajkumar, attender, directing him to explain as to why disciplinary action should not be taken against him for his continuous unauthorised absence from 29-5-03. Since the memo sent to the above said individual was returned unserved with an endorsement of process server that the addressee was not residing at the given address, another memo dated 5-4-06 was issued to him by the learned Chief Judge, calling upon him to submit his explanation within seven days from the date of receipt of memo as to why necessary disciplinary proceedings should not be initiated against him. Since the said memo was returned unserved with an endorsement that addressee left without instructions, the learned Disciplinary Authority-cum-Chief Judge, City Civil Court, framed charges against Sri Y.Rajkumar, attender, the court of IX Junior Civil Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad stating that an enquiry will be held in respect of charges which are not admitted, in the said letter, the charged employee was asked either to admit or deny each article of charge and was also called upon to appear in person on 10-1-07 at 12.30 p.m for examination under Sub rule 4 and Sub rule 5(a) of Rule 20 of the CCA rules. Since the charged employee is absconding from service and the articles of charge was not served upon him personally, the substitute service was made by way of publication in A.P Gazette, dated 8-3-07 at page numbers 254 and 255 and as per orders of learned Chief Judge, City Civil Court, the undersigned was appointed to inquire into the charges framed against Y.Rajkumar, attender, court of IX Junior Civil Judge, Hyderabad.

After receiving the proceedings from the learned Chief Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad, the undersigned issued notice to the charged employee on 5-12-07 calling upon him to appear in person before the undersigned on 15-12-07, Since the notice was returned unserved stating that the addressee has refused to receive the notice, notices were sent to the Reporting Officer Sri G.Rama Krishna, the then IX Junior Civil Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad and also to Sri M.Lakshmaiah, Process Server to appear before the undersigned on 11-1-08 to give their evidence. On 11-1-08, the Presenting Officer reported that witness no.2 M.Lakshmaiah, process server died about six months ago. Since the notice issued to the Reporting Officer to the given address returned stating that the Officer was transferred to Rajole, a fresh notice was issued to the said Officer to Rajole address and on 2-2-08, the statement of Reporting Officer was recorded and the report given by him is marked as Ex.A1.

Now the point for consideration is whether the charge framed against the charged employee Sri Y.Rajkumar, attender is proved to the hilt?

The Disciplinary Authority-cum-Chief Judge framed a charge as under:

“That you Sri Y.Rajkumar, attender, the court of the IX Junior Civil Judge., City Civil Court, Hyderabad are unauthorisedly absent to duty from 24-5-03 onwards till now without applying any kind of leave or any intimation. The above act on your part amounts to gross negligence, indiscipline, dereliction of duty and violative of rule 3 of the Conduct Rules, 1964 amounting to misconduct, an act of unbecoming of a Government servant”.

To prove the above said charge, the Reporting officer was examined and the report given by him is marked as Ex.A1. As per the evidence of Reporting Officer, he worked as IX Assistant Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad from 2000 May to 2005 May, the charged employee Sri Y.Rajkumar was working as an attender in IX-Assistant Judge Court who was orally deputed to work in the court of II Additional Chief Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad. He further stated that Sri Y.Rajkumar was unauthorisedly absent to duty from 29-5-03 and did not turn up till 10-9-04 and as he did not apply for any kind of leave and -did not give any information to IX Assistant Judge court or to II Additional Chief Judge court, he informed the said fact to the learned Chief Judge, City Civil Court, Hyderabad through his letter dated 10-9-04 and Ex.A1 is the said letter.

Since the charged employee (delinquent) did not appeal to contest the matter, the above said evidence of the Reporting Officer remained Uncontroverted. The series of events that preceded the launching of enquiry also reveals that inspite of notices issued to him, the same were returned with an endorsement that addressee left without instructions. Though a Gazette notification was made, he did not come to appear before the Disciplinary Authority to give his explanation to the Show-cause notice issued to him. Even after charge was framed, a notice was sent by the disciplinary authority calling upon him to appear in person on 10-1-07, the said notice was returned unserved. After the undersigned was appointed as inquiring Authority to inquire¹ into the charges framed against the charged employee, a notice was sent to him to appear before the undersigned and the said notice was returned with an endorsement that addressee has refused. Hence, in the above said facts and circumstances, there is ample evidence on record to believe that the charge is proved to the hilt as the charged employee Sri Y.Rajkumar, attender has unauthorisedly remained absent to duty from 29-5-03 onwards till date and his act is a gross negligence, indiscipline and dereliction of duty.
